

Lebanon

26 september
– 2 october

Lebanese Baptists have a desire to make Christ known – not only in Lebanon, but in the surrounding countries as well.

Pray for their visions and dreams to develop into practical expressions of God's love and for the furtherance of the great work they are doing in the Middle East.

PRAY FOR:

SUNDAY

26

The ongoing work of the prison ministry team. Praise God that local Lebanese Baptists can get into prisons and share the Good News.

MONDAY

27

Mat and Suzanne Gregory as they develop educational programmes for marginalised children throughout Lebanon. Praise God for the birth of their son Seth.

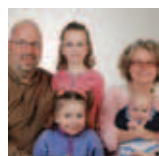

TUESDAY

28

The work of the Lebanese Baptist Society – that they will have wisdom to use their limited resources wisely for the spreading of God's kingdom in the region.

WEDNESDAY

29

Arthur and Louise Brown and their children Jessica, Naomi and Jack. Pray for their work in training Christian leaders and their involvement in social outreach programmes.

THURSDAY

30

The continued political stability of the country and that peace will endure.

FRIDAY

1

The Arab Baptist Theological Seminary and for the training that they offer to believers from all over the region.

SATURDAY

2

More workers to respond to God's call and go to this part of the world to share the gospel.

FACTFILE:

Capital: Beirut

Area: 10,400 sq km

Population size:
4,017,095

Life expectancy: 73.7
years

Population in poverty:
Switzerland 22%, UAE
10%, Iraq 8%, Saudi
Arabia 7%

The Maronite Church is the politically most active denomination in Lebanon, holding 34 seats in Parliament